

Good Toys. Real Instruments. For Kids Who Don't Miss A Beat.

The noise of parenting is unavoidable. But how it sounds? That's up to you. No fluff. Just the good stuff.

Let's Play

Perfect Parenting. Cute.

That version lives on Pinterest—or in catalogues that somehow still end up in your mailbox.

Meanwhile in the real world...You just called coffee 'breakfast', everyone's falling apart, and you're wondering how early is too early to leave.

This isn't chaos. It's life.
And you do it. Every damn day.

Sneaky Music sells toys and instruments that meet you where you are – on the floor, in the car, under pressure, well & truly over it.

They don't ask for a manual or a mood board. Just play.
So no, we don't promise peaceful moments or perfect outcomes.

We promise play. Real, ridiculous, worth-it play.

Perfect parenting?

That's not the goal.

Fruity Beats.

Just Landed.

Not So...Sneaky?

We're not here to fill the silence.
We're here to amplify it.

Because a drum isn't just noise. It's choice.
A microphone isn't just fun. It's a misdeed moment.

A microphone isn't just fun, it's a mic drop moment.
And a tambourine in toddler hands? That's rhythm, coordination, and a whole lotta self-expression (plus, surprisingly good arm strength).

Music's not a feature. It's the point.
It teaches. It builds. It sticks.

It's not about keeping them busy.
It's about giving them something that's theirs.

Not just something to do...
...but, something to be.

A wonderful experience from start to finish. I had a few questions and the Customer Service was excellent. Once ordered the product was dispatched the same day. My daughter loves her Pat Bells, and they're a real hit with her friends (and their parents!). Highly Recommend!

A great range of high quality Musical Toys and Instruments. We ordered the Totli Box for our 14 month old and he loves it, we can see an improvement in his motor skills after just 1 week.

We stumbled across Sneaky Music while searching for Christmas Gifts for our nieces. We ended up ordering them Animal Jingle Bell Sticks, and also the Pat

Bell Shelt for our little ones. Great service and fast delivery!
